Guest: A resident (XX) wishes to discuss letters that he wrote to residents.

XX had written a letter to Mayor and Councillors speaking of improprieties within Council. This letter was circulated to residents of the town and others. Mayor Cashin received the letter and came into the office to ask if I had seen it. XX came in at that time and he and the Mayor had a lengthy conversation. At the end, XX asked to be put on the agenda for the next meeting which was to be held on Tuesday, March 22, 2022.

Mayor Cashin gave the floor to XX and he proceeded to read his letter and asked Council the three questions that he had written. Mayor Cashin and Clerk/Manager responded to XX questions to his satisfaction.

XX then took his seat and Mayor Cashin called the regular meeting to order at 6:18 pm.

Councillor ~~xxx~~ continued on and Mayor Cashin reminded her that under the Rules of Procedure, if a motion doesn't have a Seconder, then all discussion regarding same ceases.
